

KING CON

Saturday, August 18, 10 am—4 pm

Express your fandom at Haverstraw King’s Daughters Public Library’s first annual mini-convention! Celebrate your passion be it comics, video games, anime and manga, movies and TV series or book series. Check out the events we are holding this day:

Cosplay Costumes and Makeup 101

Learn where to get your own cosplay costumes and how to make a cape and various props. Then learn how to put it all together with makeup with Maria Atubiga!

Stage Combat Demonstration

Presented by Christopher Plummer, a Certified Teacher with the Society of American Fight Directors. Watch a demonstration of various sword play techniques which you can use to improve your Cosplay technique.

Getting Published for the First Time

Presented by local author JG Faherty. Learn the strategies for getting published, including how to prepare a cover letter, how to prepare the manuscript, and how to find markets for specific types of work.

Cosplay Contest

Come dressed up as your favorite character and enter our cosplay contest! Registration is from 10 am - 2:30 pm. Voting will take place 2:30 pm - 3:30 pm and winners will be announced at 3:30 pm. One winner per age group will win fabulous prizes!

Movie Marathon

Enjoy a taste of some cult favorites:
10 am - "My Neighbor Totoro" G, 100 mins.
11:30 am - "Superman" PG, 143 mins.
2 pm - "Sailor Moon" G, 60 mins.
3 pm - "Star Wars: The Clone Wars" PG, 60 mins.

Maid Café

Maid cafés are a popular type of Japanese cosplay restaurant where waitresses dress as maids. Come and indulge in a variety of sandwiches, scones, cakes, and other fancies and enjoy a unique experience that's hard to find anywhere else!

Game Shows

Tea Time with Grell Sutcliff

Spend some time with Grell Sutcliff in this fun-filled session of Q&A, mini-games, and prizes!

Tokyo Ghoul

Join our two hosts in a fun-filled, interactive game of Q&A, truth or dare and mini-games where audience members may win some cool prizes!
